Indian Restaurant

Welcome to the Rasoie.
The Meaning of Rasoie is a Kitchen.

Falkirk is home to many popular tourist attractions, including Callendar House, the famous Kelpies (the horse sculptures), the Falkirk Wheel, and many more. While there are a few good restaurants in the area, when it comes to Indian cuisine, there are limited options in the towns of Larbert and Stenhousemuir.

We felt this was an ideal opportunity for a new Indian Restaurant, which is why we opened Rasoie — so that everyone can enjoy delicious, authentic curries.

Nowadays, many people suffer from allergies and food intolerances, often linked to the food we eat. That's why at Rasoie, we only use high-quality ingredients. We strictly follow all food safety standards to ensure our food is hygienic, healthy and 100% Halal.

Customers are welcome to dine in, order takeaway, or use our delivery service. If you have any allergies or specific dietary requirements, please speak to a member of our team — we are happy to help.

Please note that food prepared here may contain the following ingredients: Celery, cereals containing gluten, crustaceans, eggs, fish, milk, mustard, nuts, sesame seeds, lupin, soya, sulphur dioxide.

We use vegetable oil derived from genetically modified soya in our cooking. If you have any concerns, please speak to a team member.

Price is inclusive of VAT at the Prevailing rate.
